

KWAG 2 GO

Ignite your students' creativity with KWAG 2 Go!

Works from our Permanent Collection provide inspiration for students to create their own masterpieces using the techniques of a diverse range of artists.

Bookable single-lesson kits include individual material packets for students and lesson plans for teachers.

Content for each lesson is tied to division-specific curriculum.

KINDERGARTEN KIT

Discover the use of shape and line in art and make artworks that communicate feelings using a variety of shapes and colours.

Connects to all four frames in the kindergarten curriculum with a focus on Visual Art and Math.

Otto Beyer (Canadian, b. Germany, 1923-1998). Town Scape No. 2, 1982. Oil on Masonite, 69.9cm x 69.9cm (framed). Kitchener-Waterloo Art Gallery Collection. Gift of the Artist, 1994. © Estate of Otto Beyer. Photo: KWAG.

PRIMARY KIT

Explore the ways that artists see their communities through their art and create artworks inspired by students' own communities.

CURRICULUM LINKS:

VA - Printmaking, MA - Patterning and Repetition, SS - Communities.

Joe Talirunili (Canadian-Inuit, ca. 1899-1976). Hunting, 1963. Stonecut on paper, 71.8cm x 56.5cm (framed). Kitchener-Waterloo Art Gallery Collection. Gift of Glen E. Cumming, 1982. © Estate of Joe Talirunili. Photo: KWAG.

JUNIOR KIT

Learn about contemporary and historical Indigenous perspectives in Canada through two renowned Indigenous artists and their work.

CURRICULUM LINKS:

VA - Drawing, Mixed Media, SS - Heritage and Identity.

Daphne Odjig (Canadian-Odawa, 1919-2016). Hide & Seek, 1981. Serigraph on paper, 63.2cm x 55.6cm. Kitchener-Waterloo Art Gallery Collection. Gift of Marcia Schofield, 1996. © Estate of Daphne Odjig. Photo: KWAG.

INTERMEDIATE KIT

Explore movement in art and practice using line to capture action and form while leading the viewer's eye.

CURRICULUM LINKS:

VA - Drawing, SS - Canadian History.

Ansei Uchima (American, 1921-2000). Joy, 1958. Woodcut on paper, 56.9cm x 42.4cm. Kitchener-Waterloo Art Gallery Collection. Gift of the Estate of Mr. J.H. Smyth, 1983. © KWAG. Photo: KWAG.

• $150 for one week booking • $200 with a 30-minute virtual visit from a KWAG Educator

All materials are provided for specific class sizes.

KWAG 2 Go kits may be picked up at the Gallery or delivered to your school.