

Word Blanks

May 2021: My Favourite Things

This Sunday's activity is a Word Blanks game! Word Blanks is an exciting word replacement activity that is guaranteed to be full of laughter. Even though the Gallery is closed, use this activity sheet to create your own art experience based on your favourite things!

The instructions are super simple, ask a family member or friend to give you a word for each blank space in the story. Once you have added a word to all the blank spaces you can read the story out loud to everyone and enjoy the silly creations!

SUPPLY LIST:

- Activity sheet
- Pen or pencil
- Two or more family members or friends

Your answers will help inspire the next Family Sunday activity!
Use the hashtag #KWAGFamilySunday and tag us in your posts so we can share and see your fun creations!

My Day at KWAG

I went to visit the Kitchener-Waterloo Art Gallery with _____ (name of person filling in blanks). As soon as we walked into the Gallery the first thing we saw was a painting in a giant _____ (favourite colour) frame that was as big as a(n) _____ (favourite farm animal)! The painting was of a(n) _____ (favourite animal) eating _____ (favourite food). It made me feel _____ (current mood)! Next, we saw a sculpture made of _____ (bright colour) _____s (something in your bedroom). It was made by _____ (name of pet), a very famous sculptor. We had never seen anything like it before! After that we saw a painting of a _____ (favourite season) landscape. The trees looked like they were made out of _____ (favourite candy) and the sky looked like it was _____ (emotion). My favourite piece of art was a photo of _____ (favourite number) _____s (favourite bird) all _____ing (favourite activity) together while wearing _____s (clothing). It made me laugh! We had the best day at KWAG and wonder what we will see next time!
